

The Idaho Business Review has announced the 2010 recipients of the Idaho Accomplished Under 40 awards.

This year, the program's 11th, was the most competitive to date. More than 150 young movers and shakers across the state were nominated for the distinction. Judges, all former Accomplished Under 40 honorees, ranked applicants in the areas of professional accomplishments, leadership, community involvement and long-term goals.

The top 40 achievers will be recognized at a June 22 awards dinner at the Boise Centre and profiled in a magazine publishing June 21 in the Idaho Business Review.

Among the honorees are 2 IDLA Online Principals:

Benjamin Merrill, superintendent & 7th to 12th grade principal/online principal, Notus Junior High School/Idaho Digital Learning Academy, Boise

Dr. Sherawn Reberry, elementary school principal, Caldwell School District #132/Washington Elementary School, Caldwell
