

WEST SIDE EDUCATOR HONORED BY VIRTUAL SCHOOL

DAYTON - The West Side School District's distance learning director, JoAnn Wade, was recognized by the Idaho Digital Learning Academy on Tuesday for her efforts to promote online learning.

Wade received the 2010 Best Practices Implementation Award. The academy, which is a state-sponsored virtual school created by the Legislature, gives the award to a recipient in six districts throughout the state.